

Ce site requiert le lecteur Flash
(version 8 minimum)

Le téléchargement ne prend que quelques secondes...

Montpellier Agglomération area is one of the leading business gateways into European and Mediterranean markets for international companies. Located on the southern coast of France, Montpellier Agglomération is a key location for technology and life science companies planning to expand their market reach into the European market. We have helped other companies to get started on the right foot. How can we help you?

Get answers to your questions!

Here is your guide through all the questions that you need to ask before considering setting up a business in France. By clicking the above blue tabs, you will get the keys to finding the answers you need, along with useful addresses and helpful hints to learn how to land softly in France.

Check out our professional services

The French-European market might be very different from your home market. We'll help with everything you need to conduct market research, generate revenue and localize your products and company. If you intend to start developing your business here, one of the first things to do is to establish local presence. We are ready to work with you, carefully respecting your budget constraints, to set up a virtual or full home office in our brand new, centrally located, Montpellier International Business Incubator (MIBI) facility.

Why here?

Why should you choose France in the first place?
And after deciding that France is the most effective starting point for your expansion, why should you pick Montpellier in the south of France?
Read compelling arguments here!

Our directory lists

Eco Infos is the local business newsletter, presenting

GET STARTED IN FRANCE STEP BY STEP GUIDE

- Confirm the market opportunity
- Identify and contact distributors and sales prospects
- Locate technological resources
- Discover the local financial support network
- Find a location that meets your needs
- Figure out which legal structure is best for your new organization
- Familiarize yourself with French tax regulations
- Engage the required administrative processes
- Hire your first employees
- Obtain necessary immigration papers
- Make yourself at home in the Montpellier Agglomération area!

numerous qualified experts, who are ready to provide detailed answers to your questions. > more information

the many facets of the Montpellier economy. > more information

phpMyVisites | Open source web analytics